SOME PECULIAR CHAPS AT THE CORONATION

Oriental Princes and Potentates Are There to Greet Edward.

London, June 24.—Some of the princely arrivals from the far East for the coronation are curious and interesting. There has arrived in London the envoy from far Korea—that critical bit of country which lies at the northeast of Asia, at the juncture of the sphere of influence of Russia, China and Japan.

His highness Yi Chai Kak, Prince of the province of Eui Yang, is a cousin of the Emperor of Korea. He is employed on the civil side of the government, and is a sort of chamberlain in the royal household. Young in years—he is about 30—he has the traditional wisdom of the Orient, and he is utilizing his visit to King Edward for the purpose of seeing as much as he can of the world.

The Prince left Korea about two months ago, accompanied by three native secretaries who speak English, and by Mr. Goffe, the British Consul General in the country. He looks like a Japanese—short, yellow, amiable and clean shaven.

The party crossed the Pacific to San Francisco, and went across Canada to Quebec, whence they set sail for Liverpool. Both oceans were pacific, and his highness, who had never left his country before, found that the sea was not as terrible a thing as it had been described. At Euston the Prince was met by the King's master of ceremonies, and royal carriages drove him and his suite to the Westminster Palace hotel.

There, an hour or so later, two of his secretaries sat to receive callers. They were very correctly attired in European costume, with frock coats, and they behaved as if they had been receiving Englishmen in English hotels every day of their lives. Yet this tour is the first occasion on which they have left Korea.

"Where did I learn my English?" said one of them, a small, bristly little gentleman with twinkling eyes and an air of being quite ready for anything this dull world may provide. "Why, in my own country. There we learn English, German, French, Italian, goodness knows what. Does the Prince speak these tongues? No; why should he? He speaks only Korean; quite enough for a Prince."

And so the little gentleman rattled on, speaking immeasurably better English than most Englishmen, proud of their accomplishments, speak French. He was interested in what he had seen, but not overawed. Of course, they had called at Niagara—"Such a wonderful place you could not miss."

But Canada did not strike him as very different from Korea, except for the Rockies. "Those are grand, superb!" They wear European clothes in Korea—some of them. His land is "like Japan, but more primitive." Would its development be on the lines of Japan? The question seemed to disturb a sleeping problem. The two secretaries discussed matters in their own tongue, and explained that, not being diplomats, it was not for them to say.

At St. Ermin's hotel, a few streets away, a carriage with rampant elephants and tigers for its blazonry was waiting to take the Maharajah Kumar Prodyot Kumar Tagore for a drive. The Maharajah is a very great personage. He has nine native servants, to say nothing of his English valets, and he lives in state in his own apartments. Being the representative of lordly Calcutta, he is to be received at court.

The Rajah Sir Savalal Ramaswami Mudaliyar, representing the town of Madras, is notable for his ornaments. Diamonds as big as marbles hang from his ears. The Rajah of Bobbili, one of whose multitudinous names is twenty letters long, gave the street a glimpse of Oriental splendor when he went to the levee the other day. Sir Pertab Singh, the beau sabreur who led the glittering cavalcade of Indian Princes at Queen Victoria's jubilee, is now at Marlborough mansions, but will remove to the hotel this week.

Of all the Indian chiefs who are here, the strictest and most orthodox is the Maharajah of Jalpur.

His religion forbids him to cross the "black water," and when the invitation to come to the coronation reached his hand he did not know what to do.

The pundits consulted the Sacred Books, and expressed their opinion that if the Maharajah took his own favorite family god, Sri Gopalji, on board, and ate nothing but out of the offerings to that image of Krishna, his caste would never be broken, even if he went to the end of the world.

A new boat, free from all contamination of forbidden food, was provided, and supplied with stores of foodstuffs, holy Ganges water, and other necessities for the regular worship and the offerings to Gopalji, enough to last for six months. Gopalji was installed in a separate cabin, where all the religious ceremonies were regularly performed through the voyage.

Ras Makonnen, the distinguished Abyssinian general who will arrive in London next week to represent the Emperor Menelik at the coronation, is a man with a great future.

In Abyssinia he is universally regarded as Menelik's successor, the Emperor himself desiring to secure the succession for him. He has already acted as regent.

The headquarters of Ras Makonnen are at Harrar, where he has a palace, the gateway of which is adorned with a fringe of elephant's tails. He is a small, dark man, with large, expressive eyes, a dignified demeanor and a gentle voice.

Ras Makonnen is very devout, and once when Sir Rennell Rodd addressed a note to him saying that some nudes had been lost, the Prince—Ras is the Abyssinian equivalent for that title—advised him to wait in patience, and trust to Providence for their restoration.

Spring Fever.

Spring fever is another name for biliousness. It is more serious than most people think. A torpid liver and inactive bowels mean a poisoned system. If neglected, serious illness may follow such symptoms. DeWitt's Little Early Risers remove all danger by stimulating the liver, opening the bowels and cleansing the system of impurities. Safe pills. Never gripe. "I have taken DeWitt's Little Early Risers for torpid liver every spring for years," writes R. M. Everly, Mounts-Ville, W. Va. "They do me more good than anything I have ever tried."

A Real Friend.

"I suffered from indigestion and dyspepsia for 15 years," says W. T. Sturdevant of Merry Oaks, N. C. "After I had tried many doctors and medicines to no avail one of my friends persuaded me to try Kodol. It gave immediate relief. I can eat almost anything I want now and my digestion is good. I cheerfully recommend Kodol." Don't try to cure stomach trouble by dieting. That only further weakens the system. You need wholesome, strengthening food. Kodol enables you to assimilate what you eat by digesting it without the stomach's aid. Wm. Warner, Gem Pharmacy, 113 S. Howard st.

FIREMEN ORGANIZE RELIEF ASSOCIATION

Local In-Character and Has No Connection With Pension Fund.

A relief association has been formed by Akron firemen to take the place of the one which was discontinued six months ago. It is purely local in character, and none except firemen can be members. Akron Firemen's Relief association is the name.

Officers were elected Monday evening as follows: President, Chief Mertz; vice presidents, John Cummins and Chas. Tryon; secretary, Edward Vele; treasurer, F. F. Loomis. President Mertz will call another meeting for Wednesday evening, when the by-laws will be adopted, and other work of the organization completed.

The cause for the former association being discontinued was that it was so organized that persons other than firemen could be members, and there was dissatisfaction relative to the manner in which benefits were drawn by such persons. All causes for such complaints are absent from the present organization, and its promoters predict that it will be prosperous and satisfactory.

The rules require that members pay $2 when admitted, and dues amounting to $2 annually. They can draw sick benefits at the rate of $5 a week, and $75 will be allowed for funeral expenses.

This association is entirely separate from the Firemen's Pension Fund.

MR. DOUGLASS

Now Superintendent of the N. O. T. Lines.

Mr. W. H. Douglass on Monday assumed charge of the N. O. T. Lines as superintendent. Mr. T. G. Hansen having left for Cleveland to spend a few days with his family prior to leaving for London to take charge of his new job. Manager Chas. Currie, of the N. O. T. Co., and family, returned from their visit in Canada Sunday. Mr. Currie spent Monday in Cleveland.

COULD NOT SLEEP.

No Rest at Night, Nervous, Worried, Tired All the Time—The Medicine That Never Fails.

Mr. H. S. Morey, of No. 503 South High st., Akron, Ohio, says: "I am very much pleased with Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. They have given me rest at night—made the nerves strong and steady and generally built me up and given strength. This condition is an agreeable and welcome change from the past weakness, nervousness and inability to sleep, consequently I feel I can honestly recommend the medicine to others."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50c a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.

SCRIBES.

Guire's catching. Under cross-examination Ebbetts admitted that the Brooklyn club, without McGuire, is now occupying as high a position in the championship race as it did last year with him. Manager Hanlon also testified. Judge Dallas reserved his decision.

FAST HEEL AND TOE GO.
The details of an exciting foot race which took place on Buchtel ave., the other evening, have just become known. Among a crowd of young men at a boarding house on Carroll st. are Messrs. Wilder and Sebree, who have no mean opinion of their respective abilities as heel and toe walkers. Discussion and challenges back and forth were of nightly occurrence, until one night last week, when the conditions being favorable and both men down to weight, a race was arranged. The course was from the engine house on Buchtel ave. to the Buchtel hotel, and the stakes $3.

The other boarders got down with their loose change on their respective favorites and the race started. It looked like easy money for Wilder for a while as he was using his actor's stride and placed a gap between himself and Sebree as they fanned the air down toward College st. However, Sebree was foxy and took things easy until half the distance was covered, when he let out a few links and soon showed that he was a past master of the heel and toe game. He soon distanced his competitor and won out with plenty to spare in the remarkable time of eight minutes, flat. The seconds and spectators got in a moment later with their tongues hanging out and badly winded. The race created a big sensation along the route and every window was filled with heads anxious to know what the great excitement was. Wilder broke down completely after the race and was almost in tears, not because of the loss of three simoleons, but because his reputation as a walker was gone. Sebree generously promised him another chance and another race will be arranged in the near future.

BARBERTON'S BEATEN.
The Barbertons went down to defeat at Kent before the strong Kent team, by a score of 5 to 1, in the presence of a large crowd. The Kents outplayed their opponents, although the Barbertons played good ball.

WILL FIGHT AFTER ALL.
New York, June 24.—The mill between Dave Sullivan and "Young Corbett" which was prevented from taking place at Denver will be decided after all. According to a dispatch from St. Louis the two have signed new articles of agreement to clash in a 20 round bout for the feather-weight title before the West End Athletic club, St. Louis, on July 3.

President Charles Houghton has offered a purse of $5,000, which has been accepted by both sides. The weight is 127 pounds. The victor has agreed to box Abe Attell.

The Coliseum Athletic club, of Denver, where Corbett and Sullivan were to have fought, has given $500 to the men as forfeits for not pulling the combat off.

THE REFEREE'S NAMED.
London, June 24.—Charles White, the American referee, who has been imported to show the patrons of the National Sporting club how a bout is handled in America by an official inside the ropes, will referee the Tommy Gorman and the Joseph Walcott-Thomas West contests. He will work inside the ropes.

Jack Angle, the former official referee of the club, has been chosen by Sharkey and Rubin to officiate at their meeting. He will follow the English custom and remain outside the ropes.

Tom Scott, the official referee of the club for amateur bouts, will have charge of the "Kid" McFadden-Ben Jordan contest, while J. H. Douglass, the club's official referee, will look after the "Spike" Sullivan-Jaher White encounter.

CORBETT GETTING READY.
James J. Corbett is getting together a party to accompany him to California a week or so prior to the Jeffries-Fitzsimmons fight. Honest John Kelly already has agreed to be one of the party.

"I intend to challenge the winner at the ringside," said Corbett.

BROAD WON'T FIGHT TILL FALL.
"Kid" Broad has decided to do no more fighting until fall, unless he can get up with "Young Corbett" or Terry McGovern. His manager, Joe Macias, said recently that the Kid's virtual victory over Corbett in Denver had made a new boxer of him. "He is full of hope and confidence that he will be the champion in his class within the year," declared Macias.

WRESTLER HURT.
Paterson, Pa., June 24.—There was great indignation among the spectators at the Bijou theatre when the referee stopped the wrestling match between Harvey Parker, of Brockton, Mass., and Max Lutzberg, of St. Louis.

Dr. Townsend, who examined Lutzberg to-day, says the St. Louis man has several ribs fractured, and is in a bad condition.

The first fall was won by Parker in one hour and eleven minutes.

MUNICH MAN WON.
Berlin, June 24.—In the race for the cycling championship of the world, in 800 kilometers, today, Robl, of Munich, won; time 1 hour 28 minutes and 18 seconds. Bonhours, of Paris, was second and Taylor, of Paris, third. "Tom" Linton, the English bicyclist, lost touch with his pacemaker several times and withdrew.

McFADDEN KNOCKED OUT.
London, June 24.—"Kid" McFadden, of San Francisco, was knocked out by "Ben" Jordan, the English pugilist, in the fifteenth round at the National Sporting club here last night.

BUCHTEL'S GAME.
One of the most interesting games that the city has had for a long time, will be the meeting between ex-students and the Buchtel base ball team, on Buchtel field this afternoon. Some of the ex-students have been playing good ball since, but others have not held a ball for years, and their efforts to develop old time style and speed will be watched with a good deal of interest, and the game should make much fun. There will be a big attendance from all those who are and have been familiar with Buchtel affairs.

EAST END CLUB MATTERS.
Now that Mr. L. C. Miles is back from his European trip, it is expected that there will be something doing in the matters pertaining to the East Akron Athletic club, for Mr. Miles has been more or less a guiding spirit in the affairs of that institution. The work on the club house has been suspended, awaiting him, and there are other matters in which he will have a say. The good work done by the base ball team against the Cleveland Wheel club has encouraged the players and their supporters. The game against the Canton Marines, Saturday, should also be a good one, as the Cantons have a long string of games won, and are anxious to win more.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that can be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Interesting to Asthma Sufferers.
Daniel Bante, of Ottumwa, Iowa, writes: "I have had asthma for three or four years and have tried about all the cough and asthma cures on the market and have received treatment from physicians in New York and other cities, but got very little benefit until I tried Foley's Kidney and Urinary Cure. I sincerely recommend it to all." J. M. Laffer, J. Lamparter & Co., A. Warner.

Leads Them All.
"One Minute Cough Cure beats all the other medicines I ever tried for coughs, colds, croup and throat and lung troubles," says Dr. Scott Currin, of Loganport, Pa. One Minute Cough Cure is the only absolutely safe cough remedy which acts immediately. Mothers everywhere testify to the good it has done their little ones. Croup is so sudden in its attacks that the doctor often arrives too late. It yields at once to One Minute Cough Cure. Pleasant to take. Children like it. Sure cure for grip, bronchitis, coughs. Wm. Warner, Gem Pharmacy, 113 S. Howard st.
